ChemEngSoc Newsletter

Summer Summary 2017

A new Year, a new Beginning

ChemEngSoc 2017 is here! And with that celebrates this very newsletter its 3rd birthday as it enters unknown territory. It will be jam-packed with all the titillating information you will need to make a success of this year. The whos. The whens, The whys. The whats. The wheres. You know where to find them. Bi-termly. In your inboxes. Can you wait? Neither can we!

Freshers Week

Oh Freshers Week, where would we be without you? Started on Monday and lasts, you guessed it, a week! Freshers, this is the week to reinvent yourselves and finally be who you really are – alcoholics in the making, don't worry, give it 3 years and you'll be, just like us, well on your way there! That's what the events are there for! (Or is it just me?)

"This year is going to be the best yet, I simply can't wait for the "fun" of never-ending work to start all over again!!!

- Pedro Ballester, scarily keen student

Last year's cocktail party was lit.

In this Issue

- Exciting events timetable
- How to get shredded
- More exciting industrial relations timetable
- Committee list (YAWN)

The committee from 3 years ago. Seriously someone needs to take more pictures.

Autumn Term Events

What can I say! We've really put it on for you! Held nothing back! And now you're in the know, your excuses are worthless.

Friday 6th October – Buddies' Lunch + IceBreakers – Design Rooms. 1st years! This is where you meet your ChemEng Parents! Need I say more? Thought not.

Monday 9th October – Welcome Dinner – Queen's Tower Rooms. This one's for you 1st years/exchange students! Do not miss it. Legendary evening followed by after party at Belushi's.

Thursday 26th October – Pub Quiz – Union Bar. Pub + Quiz = Pub Quiz. I reckon you can work the rest out. Most fun if you take part as a family. Just saying!

Monday 6th November – Cocktail Party – Metric. We've all heard the rumours. (Trust me, they're ALL true ) After party? Of course, who are we kidding?

Tuesday 5th December – Christmas Dinner – Strada Royal Festival Hall. Let's all finish the term and the year on a high! Two weeks before term finishes.

Thursday 14th December – Pub Crawl – classic Fulham route. Closer to the end of the year, but not quite there yet, either way, make the most of this as a family (probably in the rain)

A CALL FOR HELP

Please. I need help. THE PIPELINE has a history of struggling for content, so help me rectify (pun most definitely intended) this problem by sending me all the material you have.

This could be anything at all, I am in such dire need of material, that I will accept pretty much anything at this stage. Some people call me desperate. I call it "being in a little bit of a fiddle".

Anything from awkward photos you took during freshers or any events afterwards to serious thesis length prose will be heartily welcomed and put straight into the newsletter without a second thought or even a moment's hesitation. I might regret that.

ChemEngSoc Sports

This is something close to my heart and plays a vital role in our society as a community. We have multiple sports teams and of course the biggest event of the year: Frank Mortons.

More info is to follow on all of this but things you can expect to have a great time at this year:

- Frank Morton 2018 presents: LEEDS
- ChemEngSoc 1st XI football team. Plays in the halls league. Dominates.
- ChemEngSoc Sunday league footie blokes. Plays in the CGCU league. Has a pint after.
- ChemEngSoc Basketball. TBC.
- CGCU Football League. The powers tell us it's back!

Sports are a great way to make a load of new friends, have a great time and stay fit and healthy.

You don't have to be any good or have any experience at all to participate in any of the teams, you just have to be ready to have a good time.

Industrial Relations

Our industrial relations team work their socks off to get the big boys to come in, introduce themselves (as if we hadn't heard of Shell, BP, P&G or Exxon) and then sponsor our events. Talks and presentations with a possibility of free lunch will happen. For who you ask? For you!!! First come, first served applies.

Thursday 5th October – BP Bookprize – Design Rooms. If you aced your exams, you get a, wait for it, big book about chemical engineering – well done you!

Tuesday 10th October – Shell Day – Design Rooms. Shell give a presentation and show the first 80 students through the door how to correctly fill in the applications.

Thursday 12th October – Exxon Lunchtime Presentation – Exxon representatives attempt to convince 3rd and 4th years to send in their applications.

Thursday 12th October – ChemEngSoc Careers Fair – Design Rooms. Get an insight on your future careers. May include crystal balls and soothsayers. Or not. Will get back to you on that one. (Will include many companies which you should apply to so definitely worth dropping by.)

Friday 27th October – MES Lunchtime Presentation – MES drop by the department, introduce themselves and you get to quiz them! What's not to like?

Thursday 2nd November – Unilever Lunchtime Presentation - Unilever representatives attempt to convince 3rd and 4th years to send in their applications.

Friday 3rd November – P&G Lunchtime Presentation – P&G representatives attempt to convince 3rd and 4th years to send in their applications.
